

SUCCESS OF A NEW REMEDY FOR BACKACHE, KIDNEYS, RHEUMATISM.

Dear Mr. Editor—I suffered for years with backache. Last March I tried "Anuric" and have used this new kidney medicine recently discovered by Dr. Pierce, and it was wonderful the way it eased the pain and gave me relief in such a short time. I have tried several medicines, but "Anuric" is the only one that gave satisfaction. I feel it my duty to recommend "Anuric Tablets" to any one who suffers as I did.

(Signed) MRS. MARGARET E. SNIDER.

NOTE: Folks in town and adjoining counties are delighted with the results they have obtained by using "ANURIC," the newest discovery of Dr. Pierce, who is head of the "LITTLE HOUSE" and "SUNDAY" papers, in Buffalo, N. Y. Those who started the day with a backache, stiff legs, arms and muscles, and an aching head (worn out before the day began because they were in and out of bed half a dozen times at night) are appreciating the perfect rest, comfort and new strength they obtained from Dr. Pierce's Anuric Tablets. To prove that this is a certain uric acid solvent and cures headache, kidney and bladder diseases and rheumatism, if you've never used the "Anuric," cut this out and send ten cents to Doctor Pierce for a large sample package. This will prove to you that "Anuric" is thirty-seven times more active than lithia in eliminating uric acid—and the most perfect kidney and bladder corrector. If you are a sufferer, go to your best druggist and ask for a 50-cent box of "Anuric." You run no risk for Dr. Pierce's good name stands behind this wonderful new discovery as it has for the past half century for his "Golden Medical Discovery," a general tonic made from roots with pure glycerine which makes the blood pure, his "Favorite Prescription" for weak women and "Pleasant Pellets" for liver ills.

HOME CIRCLE COLUMN

A COLUMN DEDICATED TO TIRED MOTHERS AS THEY JOIN THE HOME CIRCLE AT EVENING TIDE.

The first word a child utters is apt to be "Mother" and the old man in his dying dream calls "Mother!" mother! It matters not whether she was brought up in the surroundings of a city and in affluent home, and was dressed appropriately with reference to the demands of modern life, or whether she wore the old time cap and great round spectacles and apron of her own make, and knit your socks with her own needles, seated by the broad fireplace, with great black legs abase on a winter night. It matters not how many wrinkles crossed and creased her face, or how much her shoulders stooped with the burdens of a long life, if you painted a madonna hers would be the face. What a gentle hand she had when we were sick, and what a voice to soothe the pain, and what there any one who could so fill up a room with peace and purity and light? And what a day that was when we came home and she could greet us not, for her lips were forever still.

To make your home happy, see that you make your wife feel that your affection and tenderness for her are in no degree diminished from the day you first thought her. Do not let her, when you can avoid it, sit alone and go out walking alone. You would not have done so "once upon a time." Do not reserve all your blandness and fragrance for strangers or casual acquaintances. There are some men, judging from whose-out-of-doors manners, it would seem that nothing was left to be desired, who are, nevertheless, of the utmost major tribe at home; men who keep their pleasant ways and genial smiles and cheerful words for company, and who can only be silent or peevish and exacting with their wives. Have such men any just reason to complain that their homes are not happy.

If your grown son, or daughters have accomplished some difficult piece of work, rendering you essential assistance; or have climbed some steep in the daily drill of study, or have acquired some new accomplishment, or added grace; or better than all have gained the victory over some bad habit or bettling sin—acknowledge it see it, praise them for it. Let them see by your added tenderness, the deep joy and comfort it gives you. Thus you will create a great incentive to right, conduct, and lay a broad foundation for a character which shall be redolent with a succulent fruit and fragrant blossoms.

It is natural and right that a mother should wish to see her daughter well educated and even highly accomplished; and it is a mistake that good and careful education should unfit a girl for the homely duties of cooking, dusting and general housework. On the contrary, these duties would be

BLACKO

Stomach and Liver Tablets

Guaranteed to cure Biliousness, Sick Headache, Indigestion, Bad Complexion, Yellow Jaundice, Clogged or Constipated Bowels, Neuralgia of the Stomach and Nervous Headaches, so common to women. (There is more merit in one box of "Blacko" than all the so-called "women's tonics" any woman ever used. This is a broad statement and we make it without fear of successful contradiction.)

Don't Hesitate. Dry them at our risk. If they are not better, cheaper, more pleasant; if they don't do you more good than all the medicines you ever used, go back to the merchant or druggist from whom you bought them and he will refund to you Double the Retail Price.

better performed if mothers would at the same time that they seek talented instructors for their daughters, impart to them some of their own culinary talent; there would be more good wives and marriages.

A man who has made a happy home for his wife and children, no matter what he has not done in the way of achieving wealth and honor; if he has done that he is a grand success. If he has not done that, and it is his own fault, though he be the highest in the land, he is a most pitiable failure. We wonder how many men in a mad pursuit of gold, which characterizes the age, realize that there is no fortune which can be left to their families as great as the memory of a happy home.

No heart is insensible to words of praise or the kindly smile of approbation; and none are utterly above being affected by censure or blame. Children are particularly sensitive in this respect. Nothing can discourage a child more than a spirit of incessant fault-finding; and perhaps nothing can exert a more painful influence upon both parent and child. If your little one, through the day, has been pleasant and obedient, and you say to him, "My son, you have been good today, and it makes me very happy," and if with more than a usually affectionate embrace, you say, "Good night, my dear child," a thrush of suppressed feelings fills his breast, and he resolves on always earning such approval.

People always speak well of a boy who minds his own business and who seems to be disposed to be somebody in time. This a queer world; many people are watching us, and help often comes when and from whom we least expect. Confidence is the safe in which men often deposit rich treasures and as you prove worthy so will your reward of success be. There is a reward in success, which none but those who strive can enjoy. Deserve success and it will come.

A woman who fails in her home fails in all. Home is woman's realm, given into her hands to regulate, govern and beautify. If she fails here she may look in vain for another kingdom, for she has failed in the only spot she could have ultimately succeeded. She has laid down the jewels which God gave her to brighten and polish, and in their place finds nothing but dust and ash.

The home should be a place where man is always on his good behavior; our kindest words, our pleasantest smiles, and our most particular favors, should be kept to exchange with our own household.

LIFT YOUR CORNS OFF WITH FINGERS

Tells how to loosen a tender corn or callous so it lifts out with-out pain.

You reckless men and women who are pestered with corns and who have at least once a week invited an awful death from lockjaw or blood poison are now told by a Cincinnati authority to use a drug called freezone, which the moment a few drops are applied to any corn or callous the soreness is relieved and soon the entire corn or callous, root and all, lifts off with the fingers. Freezone dries the moment it is applied, and simply shrivels the corn or callous without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding tissue or skin. A small bottle of freezone will cost very little at any of the drug stores, but will positively rid one's feet of every hard or soft corn or hardened callous. If your druggist hasn't any freezone he can get it at any wholesale drug house for you.

ULYSSES

There are several newly weds at this place recently.

Miss Bertha Borders, who has been staying with her grandparents at Portsmouth for some time, was married last week to a Mr. Dooley of that place. They are here on their honeymoon trip, the guests of relatives. They will make their future home in Ohio.

Ora Borders and Corbin Davis were married at Catlettsburg one day last week. We have not learned the names of their brides.

Andrew Scarberry and Miss Alafair Bevin, both of this place, were married Friday.

Miss Edna Chandler has returned from Van Lear where she had spent quite a while with friends.

An infant child of Joe M. Borders died and was buried Friday in the family burying ground at Borders Chapel.

The stock made its first visit to the home of Will George and wife recently and left them a fine boy.

The Federal Loan Association is about to get organized at this place. Farmers here are putting in a large acreage of corn and various other crops.

High prices and scarcity of food stuffs is "setting a hostile" on all classes of farmers in this locality. Progress is somewhat handicapped by the dry, cool weather. Pasturage for stock is not what it would be under more favorable conditions.

News items are scarce here.

To the readers of the Big Sandy News—Greeting:

What did you say about the Home Circle Column? Speak out, I did not hear you. I can speak like some of you but I can break the ice just as well as any of you. So I will make my bow and say my little piece and get off of the floor and give others a chance to "speak up."

To my understanding, the Home Circle Column sends a ray of sunshine and good cheer into every home it enters. It is as a finger pointing the way to a higher plane and better things in this life and as a beckoning hand encouraging all to hasten up the shining way until we reach the bright portals of a better country. May it ever continue to grace the pages of the NEWS in the wish of EUREKA.

A NERVOUS WRECK

From Three Years' Suffering. Says Cardui Made Her Well.

Texas City, Tex.—In an interesting statement, Mrs. G. H. Schill, of this town, says: "For three years I suffered untold agony with my head. I was unable to do any of my work.

I just wanted to sleep all the time, for that was the only ease I could get, when I was asleep. I became a nervous wreck just from the awful suffering with my head.

I was so nervous that the least noise would make me jump out of my bed. I had no energy, and was unable to do anything. My son, a young boy, had to do all my household duties.

I was not able to do anything until I took Cardui. I took three bottles in all, and it surely cured me of those awful headaches. That has been three years ago, and I know the cure is permanent, for I have never had any headache since taking Cardui.

Nothing relieved me until I took Cardui. It did wonders for me."

Try Cardui for your troubles—made from medicinal ingredients recommended in medical books as being of benefit in female troubles, and 40 years of use has proven that the books are right. Begin taking Cardui today.

Written by Francis Scott Key, on the night of September 14, 1814, while compelled to watch under the guns of a British ship the bombardment of Fort M'Henry. He watched the flag at the fort through the whole day with an anxiety that can be better felt than described, until darkness prevented him from seeing it. During the night he watched the bombshells, and at early dawn his eye was again greeted by the proudly waving flag of his country.
